INQ CERTIFICATION BY INNERBOARD

Coach the transformation that actually changes people.

A self-paced, accredited certification for existing and aspiring coaches. Learn the method, live it in your own life, then lead it with the people you serve.

Learn it. Live it. Lead it.

Make the impact you came to make.

Help people move past understanding their challenges to changing how they think, feel, and show up in their lives.

Know your next move in the room.

Stop second-guessing which question to ask or which tool to use. When you see what's happening underneath, the next move gets clear.

Experience the transformation yourself.

This isn't only about becoming a better coach. Every tool works on your own life first.

Build a business around your impact.

Communicate your value, create offers that fit you, and grow through clients who tell others what changed.

SOUND FAMILIAR?

People already bring you what they're carrying.

What you do with it is the difference between a good conversation and real change.

FOR EXISTING COACHES

"Am I really helping them change, or are we just having another great conversation?"

- Why does the same client keep bringing back the same problem?
- Which question do I ask, and which tool do I reach for?
- How do I build a business that reflects what this work is worth?

FOR ASPIRING COACHES

"People already bring me their problems. Could I really do this for a living?"

- You want a method that works before you build a career on it.
- You want practice with real people, not just theory.
- You want to know you can create an income from your impact.

WHY INQ WORKS

Work the surface and you create a session. Work the source and you create change.

People don't stay stuck because they don't know what to do. They stay stuck because of the thought they keep thinking, the feeling it creates, and the action that follows, until the result proves the thought right. INQ teaches you to see that loop, help someone see it for themselves, and help them change it.

More information doesn't change that loop. Neither does motivation.

WHAT YOU GET

The tools, and the method that tells you which one to use.

INQ gives you a full set of coaching tools, gathered in The Framework Book, for thoughts, emotions, identity, relationships, energy, and goals.

Most programs stop there. INQ also teaches you why people do what they do, so you know which tool a moment calls for, and why.

Already coaching? Your existing training doesn't go away. It gets a foundation, so everything you already use lands deeper. New to coaching? You start with both from day one.

LEARN IT. LIVE IT. LEAD IT.

This isn't a certification you collect. It's a method you become.

Learn it.

Why people do what they do, and the tools that help them change it.

Live it.

Every tool goes through your own life first: your thinking, your emotions, your relationships, your goals.

Lead it.

Bring it into real coaching conversations. Every module ends with three written questions and a coaching moment you record.

You can't lead someone into what you haven't practiced yourself.

By the time you're certified, the work has already changed one person: you.

IN THE ROOM

What you'll be able to do

Less guessing. More reps. Coaching you trust because you've done it.

- See the thinking and patterns keeping someone stuck.
- Help people connect their thoughts, emotions, choices, and results.
- Stay with hard emotions without rushing to fix or rescue.
- Help people build self-trust and take ownership of their lives.
- Move people from insight into action they can repeat.
- Coach without taking responsibility for someone else's choices.
- Communicate the value of your work and build offers around it.

THE CERTIFICATION

One method, built module by module.

Radical Awareness

You can't lead what you can't see. Help people notice the thoughts and beliefs running their choices.

Mastering Emotions

Help people feel what they feel without letting it run them, and stop avoiding it with busyness, food, or scrolling.

Identity Design and Reinvention

You don't rise to your goals. You fall to your defaults. Help people choose the identity their next chapter needs.

Relationships as the Mirror

Help people stop waiting for others to change: ownership over expectation, real boundaries, and the conversations they've been avoiding.

Energy as a Leadership Strategy

Help people stop managing the clock and start managing their energy: physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual.

Alignment in Action

Clear what drains you. Design what drives you. Goals that fit who you are, not who you're performing for.

Coaching Others: Becoming the Work

Hold the mirror clean: guide others without rescuing, fixing, or proving.

Integration and Certification: Being the Work

Bring it all into your own coaching approach, and show it in a recorded coaching session.

BONUS

The Entrepreneurial Path

Turn the work into a practice: who you serve, your offers, your pricing, and how you talk about what you do.

YOUR PRACTICE

You can love this work and make a living at it.

Whether you're starting a practice from scratch or growing the one you have, the Entrepreneurial Path and the Business Builder help you build it on purpose. People who really change tell people. Over time, that becomes how your business grows.

- Get clear on who you most want to serve.
- Say what your coaching does, in words your clients would use.
- Build offers around your strengths.
- Price your work without flinching.
- Lay the groundwork for referrals and relationships.

IS INQ RIGHT FOR YOU?

Who INQ is for

Coaches

You've been coaching a while and want the method underneath your tools.

Future coaches and the career-curious

You feel the pull to this work, and you want a strong place to start.

Leaders and people developers

You've learned strategy isn't the variable. The person carrying it out is.

Therapists, healers, and practitioners

You already hold space for people. INQ adds coaching skills that fit alongside your existing scope of practice.

Teachers and trainers

You've seen that information alone doesn't change anyone.

Where you're starting matters less than the difference you want to make.

Questions people ask

I'm not a coach yet. Is INQ for me?

Yes. INQ gives you a full foundation: the method, the tools, practice with real people, and the business side. You don't need any coaching experience to start.

I'm already certified. Why add INQ?

Most certifications teach the conversation. INQ gives you more tools and teaches what's underneath them: why people do what they do, and how they change it for themselves. Your existing training doesn't go away. It lands deeper.

How long does it take, and is it self-paced or live?

It's self-paced. Most people finish in two to six months, depending on how quickly they move through the work. Weekly office hours and the community are there the whole way.

Is it accredited? What credential do I receive?

Yes. INQ is accredited by [ACCREDITING BODY]. Graduates earn [CREDENTIAL NAME].

Will I use the tools in my own life?

Yes. That's where every module starts.

Does INQ help me build a business?

Yes. The Entrepreneurial Path and the Business Builder cover who you serve, offers, pricing, and how you talk about your work.

What does it cost?

$6,997, with payment options available.

Will INQ guarantee clients or income?

No program can guarantee that, and we won't pretend to. INQ builds your coaching skill and gives you the tools to grow a practice. What you build with them is yours.

How do I know if INQ is right for me?

Book a conversation. We'll learn about your goals and help you decide.

You can coach a person's behavior. Or you can coach the person.

One creates a session. The other creates change.

INQ is for anyone who's decided which one they're here to do.
